the right blend is everything...

...in life and in real estate

Ted Schweitzer obtained his real estate salesperson license in 1988. His experience, knowledge and skills can help you with your next real estate move.

A Smooth Finish

Tactics and strategy have been in Ted Schweitzer's blood since he was a child racing small boats and windsurfers.

Sailing in competitions provided Ted the opportunity to be competitive and self-reliant. It also taught him to never give up. Today Ted still lives by the lessons he learned early in life that success is the accumulation of several small, but significant tactics, and that making more good decisions than not will get you over your finish line.

A Good Vintage

It's always been in Ted's nature to help others. He believes that what really is worth doing is what we do to help others reach their passions. When it comes to real estate Ted has been a trusted resource and advisor. Ted Schweitzer is here to help you.

Exceptional Terroir

Originally a southern California native, Ted grew up in and on the water but was lured to Traverse City by its beauty and Mid-west personality. Ted lives on the Old Mission Peninsula and is co-owner of J Henry Vineyards that supplies vinifera grapes to a local winery.

"The laid-back up north lifestyle is wonderful; country roads, orchards and vineyards all surrounded by water really are the ultimate blend of everything I love".
