Executives Make Their Choices

The 1,000-member IB Executive Register Class of 2016 is a collection of business executives including Founders, Chairs, CEOs, Presidents, Publishers, Direct Government Officials and Non-profit Executives with discriminating tastes, and their business-to-business preferences were once again tapped to reveal our annual Executive Consumer Choice Awards.

The top three vote-getters in 34 business-related categories represent a virtual Who's Who and What's What in Greater Madison advertising, banking, insurance, and management training, to name a few.

Their performance is something for area businesses to strive for, particularly since the survey featured a fill-in-the-blank style that makes it more difficult to tally votes but, in our view, provides a truer and unbiased picture of area business excellence.
